PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the following statement is true and correct:

On March 7, 2008 Border Patrol Agent L. Hayes II responded to a call via service radio from the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station requesting a Border Patrol Agent to perform an immigration inspection on a subject who was being served a restraining order by San Diego Sherriff's Deputies.

Upon Agent's Hayes arrival at 884 Cypress Street in Imperial Beach, California he met with San Diego Sherriff Deputy Franco Delrosario, ID# 1182. Deputy Delrosario informed Agent Hayes that he was there to issue a restraining order against the defendant Alberto FLORES-Marquez, but the defendant was trying to conceal his true identity. Agent Hayes identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent to the defendant and conducted an immigration inspection. The defendant initially claimed to be a Resident Alien, but stated that his card and all of his papers had been stolen. Agent Hayes informed the defendant that he was going to call dispatch and run checks to see if he was telling the truth. The defendant then freely stated to Agent Hayes that he would tell him the truth and, in fact, stated that he was a citizen and national of Mexico illegally present in the United States without the proper documents to remain here legally. Agent Hayes took the defendant into custody at approximately 7:40 pm and transported him to the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on 11/30/2001 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

Executed on March 9, 2008 at 10:00 a.m.

Irene S. Aguirre
Senior Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of two page(s), I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on February 07, 2007, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326.
